Plaintiffs,

v.

Civil No. 08-1490-HA

POK WAN CONTRACTING,
an Oregon corporation,

ORDER

Defendant.

HAGGERTY, District Judge:

Plaintiffs brought a Complaint against defendant Pok Wan Contracting seeking delinquent employee benefit trust contributions owed to plaintiffs under a settlement agreement (Agreement). Plaintiffs now advance a Motion for an Award of Attorney Fees [35]. For the following reasons, plaintiffs' Motion for an Award of Attorney Fees is granted.

BACKGROUND

On February 8, 2008, the parties entered into the Agreement whereby defendant was to make a series of payments to plaintiffs for fringe benefit contributions due under a collective bargaining agreement. Defendant failed to make those payments in a timely fashion and plaintiffs filed suit pursuant. The Agreement provided that attorney fees should be awarded to the prevailing party in any legal action brought for the interpretation or enforcement of the Agreement.

This court granted in part plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and granted plaintiffs' request for attorney fees. Thereafter, the parties settled the remaining aspects of the suit. Plaintiffs now specify that their attorney fees total $10,080.

DISCUSSION

Defendant objects to plaintiffs' request for attorney fees on two grounds: (1) plaintiffs' award of attorney fees should be limited to the work done on the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, and (2) the number of hours billed by plaintiffs' attorney is unreasonable.

The court first addresses defendant's objection that the fee award should be limited to the work done on the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Under 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)(D), the prevailing party in an action to recover benefits contributions shall be awarded "reasonable attorney's fees and costs of the action, to be paid by the defendant." Additionally, under the Agreement, the prevailing party was entitled to attorney fees. This court finds that plaintiffs were the prevailing party. This lawsuit was easily avoidable, but defendant inexplicably refused to pay plaintiffs amounts clearly owing under the Agreement. "Plaintiffs could not have prevailed on their Motion for Partial Summary Judgment without first filing this lawsuit, serving defendant, engaging in discovery, responding to defendant's discovery request, and attempting to resolve this case with defendant's attorney." Pls.' Reply 2. Under statute, and by the terms of the Agreement, plaintiffs are entitled to attorney fees for the time spent litigating this action.

Defendant's objections to the thirty-one hours billed by plaintiffs' attorney during the course of this litigation are without merit. This court has reviewed the request for attorney fees and finds it to be reasonable.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, plaintiffs' Motion for Attorney Fees [35] is GRANTED. Plaintiffs are awarded $10,080 in attorney fees. As ruled upon previously, the Bill of Costs [34] is also awarded to plaintiffs.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 16 day of October, 2009.
